COUNTY ROADS COME THROUGH WINTER IN EXCELLENT SHAPE

Inspection Shows Highways To Be In Best Condition They Have Ever Been In Spring Of The Year.

BRIDGES ARE OKAY

Reeve Charles W. Durham States "County System As Near Perfect As Could Be Under Wartime Conditions."

Reeve Chas. W. Durham, Deputy-Reeve Crittenden of North Grimsby and Reeve Clarence W. Lewis of Grimsby, accompanied the Lincoln County council on the yearly tour of the county roads on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. This year the council was able to secure a bus to make the trip, the first time in three years.

Reeve Durham in conversation with The Independent said, "every mile of county roads is in fine shape. On the whole the roads are in the best condition, at this time of year, that they have ever been in. There is not one really bad spot in the whole county system, which means that heavy Spring repair costs will be out of the picture this year."

"The fact" said the Reeve "that there was no frost in the ground, (Continued on page 11)

Returns Home

Two more Grimsby service men returned home on Friday last, on rotation leave, in the persons of Major Maurice Ralph Harries, M. B. E., Grimsby Beach and C. S. M. Eric Banks, Grimsby Beach.

Major Harries has been overseas since April of 1940, a member of the R.C.A.S.C. He is staying with his wife and little son, at the home of Mrs. Harries' parents, B. H. and Mrs. Scott.

C. S. M. Eric Banks enlisted with the R.C.E. in September 1939 and has been on continuous service overseas since December of that year. He served through the Italian campaign and suffered one wound.

Prominent Legal Firm Reorganized

MAJOR HERMAN M. RODGERS

Re-organization of a prominent St. Catharines law firm was announced Monday. Major Herman M. Rodgers, who recently returned home and who has been honorably discharged from the Canadian Army after serving more than five years in Britain and Europe, has become a member of the new legal firm of Bench, Keogh, Rogers and Grass.

The entry of Major Rodgers into the firm marks a renewal of the business association of Major Rogers and Senator Bench, who are both natives of the Garden City, were law students at the same time, and later partners in St. Catharines.

Major Rodgers is well-known in St. Catharines and throughout Lincoln County. He is a graduate of the Collegiate Institute, and of the (Continued on page 11)

Creation Of New Educational System On The Mountain Is Agreeable To Township Council If It Is To Ratepayers Concerned — Mitchell In Rare, Good Form At Regular Meeting.

Quiet respect was paid to the memory of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, on Saturday afternoon by North Grimsby council, sitting in regular monthly session. As the clock struck four Reeve Durham asked council and all others present to stand and observe two minutes' silence.

There was not much business of importance on the agenda to furrow the brows of councillors. Deputy-Reeve Crittenden, for only about the second time in his long council career was absent, owing to illness. Councillor Wm. Mitchell was in rare good form and fathered a couple of important motions.

"If the Dominion government doesn't soon take some action to prevent the erosion of land along the lake there will not be any Fruit Belt in a few years" quoth the doughty representative from the west end. "I claim that the (Continued on page 11)

Grimsby Flags At Half Mast

Post Office, Municipal Building And Veterans' Plot Flags Lowered In Reverence To Late President.

Grimsby municipal officials and private citizens, over the weekend, revered the memory of that Great and Good President of the United States, Franklin Delano Roosevelt, whose untimely passing shocked the world.

Grimsby Post Office flag was at half-mast from Friday noon until late Sunday afternoon, when funeral services had been completed in the little town of Hyde Park, N.Y. Mayor Bull instructed the flying of the flag at the Municipal building at half mast and also the flag on the pole in the Veteran's Plot, in Queen's Lawn cemetery. The flag at the municipal offices was a brand new one that was being saved for V-E Day, but instead, was flown in memory of a good neighbour and a staunch friend of humanity.

Preparations are under way for a spring clean up salvage collection.

The usual custom is for the Town Council to give permission for the use of the Town team and men to assist.

Owing to the pressure of extra work both for the men and the team, the Mayor, Mr. Bell, has been making an effort to get the local businessmen with large trucks to donate a truck and driver for a one day collection.

All arrangements are not yet complete, but at least two trucks are promised, so we hope to complete the collection in one day. So just let me remind all householders that you must have your salvage out at the curb early on collection day.

GRIMSBY MOURNS THE LOSS OF A MOST WORTHY CITIZEN

A Small World Big Circulation

Story Printed In Independent Two Weeks Ago About Lady Miner Operator Has Local Connection.

All unbeknown to The Independent a story appeared in its "Mainly For Milady" column, issue of April 5th, where the lady heroine was related to a Grimsby lady and family.

The story told of a Camilla Gage, who had been brought up and educated in Paris luxury, now owning and operating her own lead-zinc mine in Montana and making a huge success of it.

It now comes to light that Camilla Gage and Grimsby's own Camilla Roseburgh-Biggar are distant cousins, both ladies being named after their great-grandmother Camilla Biggar one of the pioneer settlers of this district.

It's a small world and The Independent has a big circulation.

Rev. John Allan Ballard Passes Peacefully Away On Tuesday Evening After A Few Days' Illness.

A NOBLE GENTLEMAN

Came To Rectorship Of St. Andrew's Church In 1905—Revered And Beloved By Entire Community.

All Grimsby and district mourns today the loss of their most revered and honored citizen. All walks of life and all denominations bow their heads in sorrow. Their friend has departed this life.

Shortly before midnight, Tuesday, April 17th, Reverend John Allan Ballard, L. T. H. passed to his Heavenly Reward, at his home, 11 Murray street, after an illness of a few days. With him at the time was his only daughter, Miss Maud Ballard.

Rev. J. Allan Ballard was a man among men. A friend to man no matter what his status in life. No man, woman or child ever appealed to him that they did not receive succor in some way or other. He was well beloved in church circles and in the every-day of business, fraternal and sporting life. He met everybody on an equal footing and was highly respected for so doing.

Rev. Mr. Ballard was born in the little village of Burford in Brant county in January 1865. He attended Upper Canada College and Trinity University and graduated in 1894. He was successively cur- (Continued on page 8)

Whereas this process still depends largely upon bees, new pollen distributors wear slacks and are in the main young women. The need of aiding nature is found where large blocs of a single variety of apples are not productive, as in orchards with many varieties.

When the first blossoms appear, the human pollenizers begin gathering the pollen into glass jars and keep on following the spring from the sunny orchards of the Wenatchee up through the Lake Chelan district to the higher altitudes of the Okanogan.

Grimsby Citizens Must Produce

This War Is Not Over And This Loan Is Just As Vital As Any Previous Loan Has Been — Archie Aiton Is Chairman In Charge And He Has A Strong Committee.

For the eighth time since the commencement of war Grimsby and North Grimsby citizens are being called upon to support the war effort by the purchase of Victory Bonds. Each and every time this district has gone over the top and they must do so this time.

Archie Aiton has been chosen Chairman of the local committee and that spells success. He has surrounded himself with a strong organization and it is up to the people to dig down and produce the money.

This war is not over and will not be over, so far as expenditure is concerned, when General Eisenhower issues his Peace Proclamation. This loan is as vital to Canada's success as any loan in the past has been, so get ready to buy bonds and plenty of them.

The committee under Mr. Aiton are: Charles A. "Dad" Farrell, E. S. Johnson, Jas. A. Aitchison, B. W. Graham, A. W. Eickmeier, J. E. Lawson, H. B. Matchett, Wm. Palmer, Harold Woolverton, E. J. Muir and B. H. Scott.

The salesmen who will be calling on the citizens, will be: D. E. Anderson, Norm. Harris, James Eason, Don. Beamer, Gordon Metcalfe, C. J. DelaPlante. The Canadian Bank of Commerce will also receive loan subscriptions.

Figures of previous objectives and loan amounts raised in the town and township in the past, are as follows:

Parked Bicycle Breaks Window

Long Expected Glass Smashing Has Happened At Last Dominion Store Plate Glass Broken.

It was bound to happen sooner or later, and it is the most surprising thing in the world that it has not happened before, not once but a dozen times.

Last Thursday afternoon one of the large plate glass windows in the Dominion store was broken by a bicycle that some kid had parked against it and went some place. The kids have had a long standing habit of parking their bicycles anywhere and everywhere, no matter what damage might accrue to the pedestrian or to property, and it has been remarked upon by many citizens in the past that it was surprising that windows were not broken in the store fronts.

Well, it has happened and it is to be hoped that the parents of this kid will be made to pay for the window. It will be a lesson to them.

Your Blood Is Needed

Since the Canadian Red Cross inaugurated its Blood Donor Service, 1,500,000 blood donations have been taken at 400 clinics throughout Canada, according to Red Cross reports. The dried blood serum that has been rushed to many parts of the world has resulted in the saving of thousands of lives.

In the blood banks of Britain, victims of robot-bombing and the great blitzes have been given a second chance to live. In the freezing cold of the Russian steppes and the heat of the Burma jungles, blood serum has been made available. The civilian victims of war's cruelty and many an Allied fighting man owe their lives to these Canadian blood donations.

"I'd never had any contact with the Red Cross until I was wounded," said Lieut. Steinberg, a former Kitchener, Ontario, boy now convalescing at Westminster Hospital in London, Ontario.

Wounded painfully in the abdomen while with a Canadian Division overseas, Lieut. Steinberg was operated on at a field dressing station by Major Hillsman of Winnipeg in the R.C.A.M.C. So serious was his condition that he could not be moved for three weeks. Unable to eat, he was given alternate injections of blood and glucose.

"I saw the boys given blood serum," he said. "I watched it pull them out of shock. Undoubtedly many, many lives were saved." His outfit was surrounding a Scheldt pocket when he was wounded. At the casualty clearing station, ten miles back of the big guns, he saw the Red Cross girls dispensing cigarettes and comforts, he related.

Next Grimsby Blood Clinic is Wednesday, April 25th. Prepare to do your share.

GRIMSBY'S NEW TRAFFIC BYLAW

On another page in this paper will be found the complete, new traffic bylaw of the Town of Grimsby. All motorists, truck drivers, motorcycleists and bicycle riders will be well advised to read this bylaw carefully, and then make up their minds to live up to it because they are going to have to do so.

Councillor Bonham and the members of his Police Committee in conjunction with police officials, and with the approval of the Department of Highways, have made a thorough job of this heavy task. They spent many long hours checking details and studying various situations about town, particularly so with regard to Main street and the lateral streets running off it.

A lot of the clauses contained in this bylaw may at first appearance seem drastic, but if vehicle operators will give them a little time, thought and study, they will readily see that they are absolutely necessary for the proper operation of traffic with a minimum amount of danger to life and limb.

Traffic congestion and dangerous situations which have prevailed on Main street and at several intersections, for some years past, will be eliminated under this new set-up. I believe, that once this bylaw has been in effect for a few weeks, that even the most serious objector will be pleased that it has been put in force.

Police officials and municipal authorities are not going to be too tough at the start. As soon as the streets are marked off and traffic direction signs erected, then special police will go on duty to assist the vehicle operators in getting onto the hang of the new regulations. The police at the start for a couple of weeks will be firm, but not too tough. After the bylaw has been in effect for, say a month, then every infraction of the law will be strictly enforced and this will mean court cases and fines, for the Town Fathers are determined that this bylaw is going to be respected in every sense of the word.

The parking problem is the one big item. In order to help this situation the council in conjunction with the Hydro Commission are erecting additional electric lights on Orchard Lane and Elm street, between Oak and Mountain. There is space enough on these two streets to park two or three hundred cars without hindering the normal traffic of these streets, because double parking and long time parking on Main street and the four streets running off it will be taboo.

The great congestion caused by the buses will be a thing of the past. Segregated bus parking spots are being laid out and the buses will have to park in those spots. Also all other vehicles are prohibited from parking in bus spots, at any time. They must always remain open for bus use.

I advise all operators of vehicles of any kind to read this bylaw carefully. In fact clip it out and save it and every once in awhile read it over and save yourselves a lot of headaches.

THE JOKE THAT BOOMERANGED

Down in Ottawa last week Mr. MacKenzie King pulled a fast one. At least, at the time, he thought he did. Right out of a blue sky he knocked the country dizzy and the province of Ontario dizzier, by announcing the Dominion election date as June 11th, the same date as previously announced by Premier George Drew for the polling of the provincial vote.

Everybody knows, if they know anything about politics, why King took this action. He knows perfectly well that Drew is going to sweep Ontario and he did not want that to happen a day, three days, a week or two weeks, before the Dominion polling, for the effect that it would have on the people in other provinces.

In pulling such a stunt he only made a comedian out of himself and as the Owen Sound Sun-Times remarked, editorially, "Bob Hope better move over and make a place for a better jokester than he, Willie King". And that from the Sun-Times is something, for that paper has always been a forthright Liberal organ.

What will little Willie King do now? The joke has boomeranged. It now appears that when Premier Drew announced June 11th as the election date, that is all that it was, an announcement. The election writs had not been signed and issued. Apparently Willie thought that they had. The result of all this is that on Monday Premier Drew changed the date and added the joke, by proclaiming Monday, June 4th as Ontario's polling date, thus eliminating a tremendous amount of confusion for the public.

With two election campaigns going on at once in this province the confusion in the minds of the ordinary voter is going to be terrific, but not nearly so bad as it would have been had the ballot marking been done on one and the same day.

Right here and now, two months away from both polling days, let me give you a little sage advice.—If you want to be sure of entering the Kingdom of Heaven, when your earthly work is finished, then, Revere Your God, Honor Your King and Vote the Conservative Party.

A GOOD MOVE

The announcement that gratuities will be paid to the estate of a soldier killed in action, will be hailed with general satisfaction throughout the country. Evidently the Order-in-Council is retroactive.

The order is simply a matter of justice. The soldier earned the money, $7.50 per month while in Canada, and $15 per month while overseas and, having earned it, had the right to dispose of it in his soldier's testament. Public opinion and almost unanimous expression in Parliament, no doubt, has a lot to do with the action taken by the government.

There is now a demand for better treatment for the men of the merchant marine who, in many respects, remain the unwept, unsung, unhonored heroes of this war. They will deserve all they get. Men who have had the Atlantic, the Mediterranean and the Murmansk runs, while things were very hot are entitled to the best.

THE FIRST SESSION

The C.C.F. governs in the Province of Saskatchewan, and the government has just finished its first session. A post-mortem on this session is given by The Regina-Leader Post.

The session as a whole, says the Regina newspaper, was "a striking illustration of the dangers to democracy inherent in the implementation of a party program based on autocratic executive control in place of legislative responsibility." The C.C.F. majority pressed on with great zeal its "undemocratic practice" of arming ministers and boards with sweeping powers to make decisions without reference to the Legislature, decisions from which there is no appeal, and the Opposition members who urged caution and moderation, were scorned as emissaries of "Big Business."

In some small matters there was a slight retreat "from the autocratic conception of government," but in the main The Leader-Post finds the broad policy of the C.C.F. administration to consist of "compulsion rather than agreement, regulation instead of guidance, confiscation in place of negotiation."

As The Ottawa Journal comments on all this: "Saskatchewan is, so far, our only proving ground of C.C.F. Socialism. In that province the C.C.F. is being given a chance to test its theories and apply its principles. For voters in the other provinces there is more significance in what Saskatchewan does than in what C.C.F. leaders say, because what is being done today in Saskatchewan will be the policy tomorrow in Ontario, and the next day in all Canada, if we give Socialism its head."

"Compulsion rather than agreement, re-

HOME TOWN LIFE

The future of a community depends in part on whether people enjoy living in it. It may be said that people will live in any place where they have a good job or favorable business chance.

But if they dislike the place where they live, they are more likely to accept chances to leave it. If they like the place, they make less effort to go elsewhere.

Some young people are influenced in their choice of careers by the kind of time they have in their home towns. If such a place is full of life and activity, they hate to leave it. Many of them will stay on there if there is a decent chance to make a living there. Social life, facilities for education, and pleasant entertainments, are factors in the future of a community.

Home Town News Is Liked Best

Interest in national and world news has spurred since the outbreak of the war but Americans still like best to read about what happens "around the corner and down the street," the American Newspaper Publishers' Association's Bureau of Advertising reports.

Even "the mighty panorama of war itself seldom becomes wholly real till it comes home... in stories told by local boys returned from the front... in locally slanted dispatches about the combat exploits of hometown lads we know... or in the sad, terse eloquence of the local casualty list," the bureau said.

Based on 5½ years' findings of the continuing study of newspaper reading, in a comparison of men's and women's reading of top war stories and local news and features, the report continued:

"Deep-rooted, constant and never failing is people's interest in news. War affects it only to make it still more intense and to broaden its horizons. Over and over during World War II, the compelling attraction which big war news exerts has been demonstrated.

"But no matter how vital to us are the acts of Hirohito, of Churchill and Chiang Kai-Shek — no matter how vividly news from far-away places like Lingayen and Bastogne is etched on our minds — what happens in our own town, around the corner and down the street, is still of unique and commanding interest to us all."

Only in newspapers, the bureau concluded, "can people satisfy this ever-present hunger. No other medium possesses the facilities essential to presenting the quantity, the variety or the wealth of detail and illustration in local news which people everywhere demand."

Wrong Language

After giving the private a dressing down for being so late in returning with the supplies, the sergeant demanded, "Okay, let's hear how it happened, Miller."

"Well, I picked up a chaplain along the road," explained the woe-begone rookie — "and from then on the mules couldn't understand a word I said."

A Message from GEORGE DREW to all with Relatives and Friends Overseas

ARRANGEMENTS have been made by the Ontario Government for members of all the Armed Services overseas to vote in the coming Ontario election by placing a ballot in a ballot box for the candidate of their own choice. The arrangements which have been completed for the Ontario vote are the best which have yet been made for any Active Service vote. The Government, however, can only make the arrangements for taking the vote. What is equally important is that those who are overseas know the name of the candidates, the party they are supporting and have a sufficiently clear picture of the issues to decide how they should vote. That can only be done if those at home supply them with information. May I strongly urge every wife, mother, father, sister, brother or friend of those overseas to write and tell them all they can about the coming Ontario election. By clippings from newspapers, by editorial comment, and by personal explanation, a clear understanding can be given of what is really at stake in this Ontario election.

One of the things which will cause the greatest difficulty in the minds of those overseas, particularly those who live in large cities, is to determine which Riding they live in. Maps will be available, but even the best map sometimes leaves doubt when the voter has been away from home for a long time, or as is true in so many cases has never voted before. This difficulty will be increased because of the difference between the boundaries of Dominion and Provincial Ridings.

I would suggest that you write immediately, by airmail, to all with whom you are in communication and tell them the Riding in which they live and give them what information you can about the party and the candidate in the Riding where they are entitled to vote.

I should mention that every member of the Armed Forces overseas of any age is entitled to vote. They, above all others have the right to vote. They have preserved for us that free system of Government which depends upon the choice of our own representatives. Our job here at home is not only to make sure that they have the chance to vote but also to do everything possible to make sure that they are able to vote with knowledge of the real issues in the election.

For the sake of convenience, I am suggesting that you simply cut out this message and address it to someone overseas giving the information required. Each one of us here at home has a responsibility to help them to choose the Government which will have so much to do with their future in the years of peace. May I again urge you to write at once, by airmail, not only to those closest to you but to as many as you know in any of the services outside of Canada. Tell them what Provincial Riding they reside in at home — then the name of the candidate and any further information you can supply.

Yours sincerely,

Your Provincial Riding is

Your Candidate is

We can do so little ...and yet so much!

EACH DAY the war takes its toll of Canadian youth. Yet hope and longing cannot reduce enemy strongpoints. We cannot restore lost lives. There is little we can do to ease the sufferings of the wounded.

How, then, can we ever start to pay the debt we owe to our fighting men?

For most of us there is only one way. It is to buy Victory Bonds to help those still fighting to advance at the least possible cost... to help pile up munitions so that they can crush the enemy with fire and steel... to outmatch his weapons until his last spark of hope is dead.

So buy Victory Bonds to your utmost limit... and do it today.

Thank you very much for the cigarettes I received a few days ago. The last lot I received were sent in January so they sure arrived in short order. Well everything over here is going along quite smoothly and I must say quite a few of the lads around here sure envy me. They say they wish people from their community would send them smokes as you people have done for us from around Grimsby. So with these few words I'll close my short note but thanking you again from the bottom of my heart, and hoping to be home soon.

Yours respectfully
Rudy Lupinski

Once again I have the pleasure of thanking you very much for the grand 300 cigarettes which I received this evening and a million thanks. It's really awfully good of you and all who made them possible and I'm afraid I'm at a loss to know how to thank you, as nothing would please me more.

The weather here now is much better, I think it's going to shorten the war up by weeks and of course the end can't come too soon for any of us, can it?

I have had the pleasure of having a seven days' leave in England of which I enjoyed to the fullest extent, in fact it was altogether too short, and of course the coming back doesn't seem any too good, but of course all good things must come to an end.

Now I must close, thanking you again for your kindness and I do hope that this finds you enjoying perfect health.

I remain,

Yours respectfully,
Alex Neale.

I just received another carton of cigarettes from you, my address has been changed so they were forwarded from the old place.

I have just returned from a very enjoyable seven days' leave in Paris everything as far as accommodation was concerned was arranged by the Army and it was perfect. It's a beautiful city, probably by far the most beautiful I have ever seen. As a matter of fact it's rather grim coming back to work after a few days at a place like that.

Thanks a lot for the cigarettes.
Sincerely,
Robt. Gibson.

England,

Thanks a million for the 900 smokes I received from you today. My mail has wandered all over Europe since I went to hospital and I am receiving all my mail at once.

It really feels swell to have such kind friends back home plugging for you.

Thanks again.

A. E. Blanchard

Many thanks for the cigarettes received a few days ago. They are indeed welcome at this time. Would have written sooner but was fortunate enough to have a lucky break—7 days' leave in the U.K. Sure was glad to hear the natives talk English again. Will be better yet to hear the Canadian once again.

With every good wish I am,
Sincerely yours,
Gerry Kelson.

Another parcel of cigarettes came along from the chamber of Commerce this month. Thanks to you, Carm, and to all those who assist in making these very welcome gifts possible.

Under a recent order we are permitted to receive only 900 cigarettes per month. Any in excess of that number are held over for a lean month. But should we not receive 900 we can purchase from a central pool up to that number at the duty free rate. When this system gets working properly it will I am sure make for a more even distribution. It will enable those who are not blessed by such kind friends—as we who are on the mailing list of the G. C. of C.—to purchase their cigarettes at the reduced rate.

I understand that you have been having a good old fashioned winter. I suppose you don't appreciate the "good" part of it after handling a snow shovel daily for a few months. But it should be good for some of those sleigh riding parties we used to enjoy, even though we did push Howie Ferris' team through the heavy spots.

We also had quite a severe winter. Seems to be general throughout the world. But fortunately we are located in what is reputed to be the mildest part of Scotland—and being attached to the Forestry Corps you can well imagine that we are not short of fuel. Fact is I have been much more comfortable up here in the North of Scotland than I was down in the South East corner of England which is a hot spot.

Already the days have lengthened considerably and there are signs of spring. But when these Scotch mists start to come down one requires more than one raincoat to keep out what we always called rain.

All the best, Carm.
Sincerely,
Major Vance Farrell.

Belgium,

Feb. 10/45

Thank you very much for the carton of cigarettes which I received from the Chamber of Commerce Cigarette Fund this morning.

Thanks especially to you, because I gather that it is largely through your efforts that these more than welcome gifts are made possible.

Best wishes for the future success of the Chamber of Commerce.

Sincerely,

J. C. Farrell

Received another 300 smokes this week and again I want to convey to you and the Chamber of Commerce my sincere appreciation for the good work you are all doing.

By the news this noon hour it may not be many days before this is all over. Hope it may come soon and sudden.

I am still instructing and enjoying it as far as the army will allow you.

I haven't seen any lads from town. My Dad said he had been talking to Walt Hiltz and so he is home in town. A good show for him.

Well, Carm, 'tis time I should be catching a train and so for now so long. Thanks again for the smokes.

Sincerely,
Harvey Easson.

County-Wide Veteran Re-Establishment Program

Typical Case Of The Service Rendered To Veteran And Family

This is a story about Johnny Canuck, his wife and kids. Johnny Canuck is any Canadian lad who is doing his bit, and he's been doing his bit, in the navy, the army, or the air force. Maybe he was the kid that you used to play with over your backyard fence.

Johnny has been in the thick of action, but he still has time to wonder and worry about his wife and family. He's concerned whether everything is going alright at home. Any of the boys that have come back from over there will tell you that is the chief concern of our fighting men.

Well, thanks to organizations such as the Lincoln County Citizens' Committee the problems confronting the wives and families of servicemen have been solved and the anxieties of a fatherless home have been made a lot easier.

Just let's leaf through the files of the Citizens' Committee and you will learn of the important job which has been done in a quiet way by this organization. First, here's a letter from a boy in Italy. Perhaps the bombs were bursting not far away when he wrote but those bombs didn't chase the gratitude from his heart.

He wrote: "This is just a poor attempt to thank you for what you have done for my wife and children. I can't tell you what a relief it was to get her letter. I was so worried I felt I could not go on any longer. (He's been over since 1939.) I now feel that everything is going to come out all right. My wife's recovery from her serious illness was being hindered by the constant worry over the payment of medical and hospital bills. Since you saw her and explained the assistance provided by the Dependents' Board of Trustees in such emergencies she has improved greatly and is going to be well again soon. Thanks a lot."

Now let us take the air force lad, discharged after two complete tours of operations in Africa, Italy and over Germany, all mighty tough going. He's 22 years of age. Just before he enlisted he had completed his high school education with an honor matriculation. Now this young "veteran" was undecided. Five hours were spent in discussion with an official of the Lincoln County Citizens' Committee.

The airman was restless, as can well be imagined. He was getting into a rut, but there was a silver lining to this problem. He was interested in electrical engineering, and he's now working at a plant in this district and come next autumn he will enrol in an Ontario university and with the financial aid of his rehabilitation benefit he will go on to complete the education of his choice. It's just another example of guidance and encouragement for our Johnny Canucks.

Mothers of Johnny Canucks are the silent heroines, in many instances, in this war-torn world. They have seen their boys go to war, one by one, some of them never to come back, but they have carried on hopefully keeping their homes and families together. A few days ago one of these mothers came into the office. The official in charge remembered her as a "charming, little old lady."

"I don't know what I want" were her first words and the kindly official answered, "You're just in time—we have a fresh stock." She sat there for an hour or more talking, just talking about her boy, the one that was on a minesweeper somewhere on the sea he had been sailing for three years now. It was homey talk about the boy, what he wrote in his letters, what he looked like, and what she hoped for him when he came back home, which she said, would "Pray God be soon". It was a mother unburdening herself so she could go back home and bravely face the folks. It was the sort of a humanitarian service that the Lincoln County Citizens' Committee is rendering Johnny Canuck and his folks every day in the week.

Refer Problems To Committee

The best advice you can give a veteran with a problem is to refer him or her to the Lincoln County Citizens' Committee, 6 Queen Street, St. Catharines, or to the committee representatives in your municipality or township. Consult the list of committee executive which appears on this page.

War Service Committee Personnel

Representative men and women of Lincoln County have gladly accepted the opportunity to serve ex-servicemen and ex-servicewomen by accepting appointments to the Lincoln County Citizens' Committee (active services welfare and rehabilitation).

All sections of Lincoln County are represented on the committee, and the various branches of fraternal, community, and social life have representation on the committee so that the broad and comprehensive program necessary for the job will be adequately discharged.

The executive duties come under the direction of the executive committee and the supervisory staff which in turn is responsible to the advisory committee. This latter group is comprised of committee chairmen and representatives of organizations and community groups. Under the advisory group function the various committees, each of which has a specialized job to perform in the re-establishment of the veteran.

Executive committee: C. F. Woodward, chairman; E. H. Lancaster, K.C., vice-chairman; J. W. Primeau, secretary; Cecil Secord, (Warden of Lincoln County); Richard Robertson (chairman, finance committee, St. Catharines city council).

WARDEN

Cecil Secord, warden of Lincoln county, is urging every citizen of Lincoln to assist the committee.

JOINT APPEAL TO THE CITIZENS OF LINCOLN

To the Citizens of Lincoln County and St. Catharines:

Realizing that the responsibility of re-establishing returned men in civilian life does not rest entirely on the shoulders of the Dominion government alone, and that every province and every municipality and every local government authority have more than a passing interest in this problem, the Council of the City of St. Catharines and the Council of the County of Lincoln jointly undertook to organize a local committee, for the purpose of:

Firstly, assisting the returned men to secure employment. Secondly, representing them before the Dominion government in matters of government gratuities due them for their war service.

Thirdly, securing the enrolment in trade schools of those men wishing to learn trades. Fourthly, to generally assist these men and women to become re-established in civilian life.

In order to achieve the most energetic progress in this work, the Joint Councils were fortunate in securing the services of a local organization, composed of representative citizens, known as the Lincoln County Citizens' Committee and already set up to assist soldiers' families. The reorganized committee has as its general chairman Mr. Cyril F. Woodward; Major E. H. Lancaster, K.C., is vice-chairman, and Mr. J. W. Primeau is treasurer. All these men serve gratuitously. A full-time supervisor has been engaged and the expense is shared jointly, one-third by the county and two-thirds by the city. All the special circumstances of each case coming under the observation of the committee are carefully considered and every effort is being made to attain the re-establishment of all these returned men and women in civilian life as useful citizens.

To be fully effective, the local committee must have the whole-hearted co-operation of every citizen and we feel that if every citizen interests himself in the plan he will, undoubtedly, be able to provide useful assistance to the local committee undertaking this task.

Yours faithfully,

W. J. Macdonald, Mayor.

Cecil Secord, Warden.

Committees Formed In City And County To Assist Returned Men

The Lincoln County Citizens' Committee (active services welfare and rehabilitation) is just what the name implies. It is an organization of men and women of Lincoln County who have joined together for the purpose of assisting the returned veteran to re-establish himself or herself in civilian life.

That may sound fairly simple but for those already acquainted with the job and to those who will analyze the task it is a big undertaking. And that is the job that the Lincoln County Citizens' Committee is prepared to complete with the assistance and co-operation of the public and the ex-servicemen.

The importance of full public co-operation cannot be over-emphasized when it is realized that there are over 6,000 enlistments on active service, both men and women, who left peacetime pursuits since 1939 to serve King and country.

A sketch of the history of the committee will present for the general public a clear picture of what has been accomplished to date and the services still to be rendered. Early in 1940 the military authorities realizing the necessity of personal attention to problems facing the dependents of the service personnel, appointed an officer in each military district to solicit and organize the assistance of the civilian public in maintaining the personal co-operation which obviously was necessary to stabilize the morale of the servicemen.

The officer from M.D. 2 approached Mayor Charles Daley, mayor of St. Catharines in 1940, outlined the requirements and the mayor then invited Major E. H. Lancaster, K.C., to organize a committee. This well known citizen established a large committee of public-spirited citizens who donated office space, furniture, stationery, and other supplies and with volunteer assistance the job, then growing daily, of compiling complete records of enlistments, casualties, dependents, etc. was started.

From 1940 until autumn of 1944 when re-organization and enlargement of the committee took place, the original group under Major Lancaster's committee maintained a service that was of inestimable value to the servicemen and his family. Thousands of individual cases were dealt with and it is to the credit of this organization that complaints and difficulties which were so numerous in the first war were almost entirely avoided.

The length of the war, the return of injured and ill veterans, and the successful turn for the Allies late last summer, which made possible the discharge of many long-service veterans opened up new problems for this busy volunteer group. These new responsibilities were beyond the capacity of the volunteer body and made necessary the re-organization of the committee on an extended basis with financial assistance from both St. Catharines and Lincoln County councils, and employment of a full-time staff.

Mayor W. J. Macdonald, M.D., St. Catharines, Warden Norman Miller, Lincoln County and Major Lancaster undertook the job of re-organizing the committee to incorporate among the services already provided that of rehabilitation. C. F. Woodward accepted the chairmanship of the new committee, and Major Lancaster was given more than four years of leadership to the original committee, became the vice-chairman. O. S. Boase became the full-time supervisor and Mrs. E. M. Macdonald assistants.

The Dominion Government has set up rehabilitation benefits for the purpose of re-establishing the veteran in civilian life but the important job which the Lincoln County Citizens' Committee plays is to assist the individual serviceman or woman who cannot obtain government regulation, which of necessity are of a mechanical nature, such as: settlement in farms or small on the continuation of scholastic training, training for trade education, or other occupations, allowance for clothing, one month's pay and allowances subsequent to discharge, free hospitalization and allowances for 12 months after service, allowances while awaiting returns from business, temporary incapacity pay, unemployment pay, return to former employment with seniority, preference in civil services, unemployment insurance benefits and many others.

Associated with these opportunities and benefits, the Lincoln County Citizens' Committee assumes the responsibility of giving advice and counsel. The veteran must face the facts, and after an absence of several years there will be adjustment problems for him and his family, and he will need guidance in the selection of trade or occupation to make best use of his gratuity and re-establishment credit.

Pertinent Questions To Citizens

These are questions which every citizen of Lincoln County must squarely face when a son, husband, brother or daughter returns from active service:

"Am I the same as when Johnny left?"

"What changes will he see in me?"

"Will he be the same?"

"Am I prepared to make allowances for these changes?"

"Am I prepared to assist him in his job?"

"Am I prepared to make way for him in his difficult period of readjustment?"

"Am I prepared to be patient, kind and thoughtful if he appears to be unsettled and perhaps at times irritable?"

The correct answers to these questions will help us as the fortunate ones who have not suffered from short rations, mud, active warfare, and other hardships to realize that now it is our opportunity to do our bit for those who have sacrificed so much for us.

Public Is Requested To Assist

To assist the Lincoln County Citizens' Committee in rendering service to the servicemen and women and their families next-of-kin are asked to consider it an obligation upon themselves to forward information requested in the questionnaire on this page. This information should be forwarded regardless of whether the man or woman is still serving, has been discharged, is injured, is a prisoner of war or has been killed in action.

O. S. Boase Energetic Supervisor Of The War Services Committee

The Lincoln County Citizens Committee is fortunate to have as supervisor, O. S. Boase of St. Catharines, who has been active and experienced in veterans' problems for more than 10 years.

Mr. Boase is well aware of the problems which confront an ex-serviceman having served 3½ years in Great War I with the 31st Battery, Canadian Field Artillery, which was mobilized in the Niagara area in 1915. Mr. Boase was born in London, England, and came to Canada shortly before the outbreak of war.

Following his return he established residence in St. Catharines and has been active in community affairs. He is a former secretary, St. Catharines Branch of the Red Cross Society; former treasurer of the Boy Scout Association, a past president of the Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L., and an executive member of the Associated Charities.

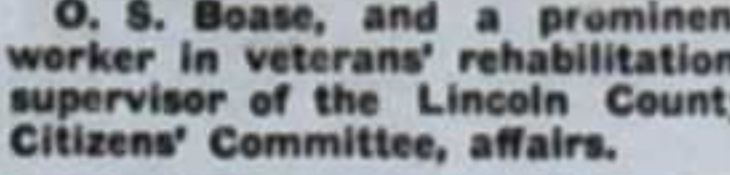

He has devoted much of his time to veterans' problems and for the past eight years has been pensions advisor to the Canadian Legion. The advent of Great War II, brought new demands and problems, in all of which Mr. Boase offered assistance willingly.

Last September he was appointed full-time supervisor of the Citizens Committee and has won high recognition for the able manner in which he has supervised the multiplicity of problems and difficulties placed before this organization.

Mr. Boase enlisted as a gunner in the 10th Battery, R.C.A., reserve, in 1940, and was subsequently commissioned as a lieutenant, a rank which he now holds.

Supervisor

O. S. Boase, and a prominent worker in veterans' rehabilitation, supervisor of the Lincoln County Citizens' Committee, affairs.

Co-Operation Is Essential

It is essential that the citizens of Lincoln County realize that the Lincoln County Citizens' Committee is their committee and everyone is urged to do his or her part, regardless of whether or not they have relatives in the armed forces.

You can help in the following manner: If you have information regarding servicemen or women or their dependents please forward it to the Committee's Central Office, 6 Queen Street, St. Catharines, or to the nearest committee member. Be sure to list the information requested in the form which appears on this page; either use the form or send a separate letter or any other method convenient to you.

Remember, these men kept the Hun from Canada and it is our duty and our privilege to honor them when they come back by impressing upon them that Canada and Canadians are grateful for their services, and are willing and anxious to assist them and their dependents.

The main object of the Lincoln County Citizens' Committee is co-ordination of effort. There are already established and operating in the county many organizations active in rehabilitation and re-establishment and it is not the intention of the Citizens' Committee to replace, change or disrupt the efficient operation of these groups. Rather, the central committee desires to support them and give them any assistance necessary.

Let our individual interest and effort be a worthy tribute to returning ex-servicemen and women.

PENSIONS PLAN

The basic principle recognized by Parliament in awarding disability pensions payable on account of a disability related to service is that it is money owed by the state to ex-servicemen or ex-servicewomen because of their service disability. A disability pension is not awarded for length of service or even for wounds. It is awarded for the loss or lessening of normal abilities. The amount of pension payable is not fixed by the Pension Commission. It merely determines the percentage of disability that a man or woman has suffered; the amount of pension payable is governed by the provisions of the Pension Act.

The radio doctor who tells you what medicine to take to stop that suffering usually causes more suffering as a result of his sales talk.

An American business man is the one who doesn't care about a holiday unless it is big enough for him to commercialize it.

Invest in the Best

CHAIRMAN

Cyril F. Woodward, chairman of the Lincoln County Citizens' Committee.

Co-Operation Is Essential

The biggest post-war job that faces the people of Lincoln County is the re-establishment and rehabilitation of the more than 6,000 men and women who have served their country. Cyril F. Woodward, St. Catharines, has accepted the directorship of this expansive volunteer civilian task as chairman of the Lincoln County Citizens' Committee.

Mr. Woodward accepted the chairmanship of the re-organized committee in August, 1944, and the able manner in which he has undertaken and given leadership to the committee ensures that all possible service and aid will be provided for the returned serviceman and his family in St. Catharines and this county.

In business life Mr. Woodward is managing director of Grouts Ltd., St. Catharines, and of a subsidiary company, Valleyfield Silk Mills Ltd., Valleyfield, Que. He came to Canada in 1924 from England after serving for approximately 10 years with the parent company, Grout and Company, Ltd. His administrative and executive experience is of great value in his position as chairman of the Citizens' Committee.

Coupled with this experience is his appreciation of the veterans' problem for as a youth of 18 he enlisted in the Imperial Army and served for two years before being discharged through illness in 1919.

Mr. Woodward has been active in community affairs in St. Catharines and is a past president of the Rotary Club, and a director and second vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Durable Canucks

The British people must think that Canadian soldiers are very durable. At least one Canadian gunner has done his bit to impress them with this fact. He stepped off the Glasgow Express when it was travelling at 80 miles an hour.

Twelve hours later the police located him.

He was asleep and unharmed.

READY MONEY

is handy to have...

MOST farmers, like most business men, start with limited capital. The first years . . . they seem so many years . . . are a struggle to make ends meet; to find the money to pay current bills. Then, when savings have accumulated to enable equipment and supplies to be bought at lowest prices; help hired when needed and produce held for most favorable selling prices, worries are fewer and profits greater.

Farmers, whose incomes have increased during the war years, have learned the many ways in which Victory Bonds help them in their financing.

Victory Bonds provide an objective to save for, and a safe place to keep savings. They earn money for you as long as you have them . . . double bank interest.

Victory Bonds enable a farmer to borrow money at a low interest rate . . . and the interest the bonds earn pays a large part of the interest on the loan. Banks recognize Victory Bonds as the best form of security that can be offered by any borrower. There is no delay in getting a loan; no "bargaining". You get the loan and still have your bonds.

And when you buy Victory Bonds you are doing an important job in helping your country's war effort. That knowledge will give you satisfaction and pride.

High-Speed Knitting

An amazing knitting machine which can knit at the rate of 2-350,000 stitches every minute has now been perfected. It is an all-British effort and has been completed after more than seven years of experiments.

In spite of its phenomenal speed it produces the highest quality ladder-proof rayon fabric. Every minute this machine turns out 20 to 25 inches of fabric 84 inches wide, and in an hour can transform a million yards of yarn into 50 yards of fabric. If one of the 5,000 threads in the machine breaks it immediately stops automatically.

China's Golden Mushrooms

The miracle growth of Jack's beanstalk had nothing on the way money grew between Canada and China this last month. When the students of McGill University raised $5,000 and sent it to the brave unconquered students in China, they didn't dream they were handling golden mushrooms. But such was the case.

By the time the five thousand reached them it had grown into $800,000. From here on—the story isn't so good. Because, not only had money grown in China but food and clothing prices had gone hay-wire also.

One egg would cost a young student there exactly $7.
One pound of sugar would cost $1.50.
One bar of common soap $5.
One bushel of rice $500.
One foot of cotton that used to sell for 8c would cost $24.
One pound of pork, to cook with cabbage, and a small handful of rice would cost $65.

So, although the generous and kindly gift from the students of Montreal looked so big from where we sit, it really wouldn't buy them many of the comforts and pleasures of life.—Edna Jacques.

The Women

It is the women who will remake the world. In the bombed and blackened villages will rise New homes upon the smashed foundations; smoke from supper fires will drift on quiet skies.

Once more on doorsteps in the fragrant dusk Women will sit with children at their knees, Eyes calm with tested courage, voices low With steadfast love and fresh born hope. Oh these

Are builders of the future, and they build On simple things that neither brutal death Nor savage hate can conquer: kettle, bed, Firewood and herbs, a child's cry, and the hearth.

Give a woman loss of these things and she fights! Give her but only the aching faith in them And she will make a home of rubble, breathe Belief into the hearts of fighting men.

It is the women who will remake the world, The women who have eaten well of sorrow, They will sit on doorstones in the unbombed dusk And teach their sons to make a clean to-morrow.

Hello Homemakers! Some of our readers who wish to use left-overs without following a recipe have requested information on standard proportions and substitutions.

We promise to publish this from time to time, so if you are interested clip this week's column.

May we thank those who wrote asking for this guide, because we feel it should be useful to many other homemakers.

"...where the heart is!"

SITTING by the fireside at home—digging, in the garden for fun—lazy weekends just fishin'—these things mean comfortable, pleasant living, the kind of living your man overseas is dreaming of, fighting for. Make sure these simple, pleasant things exist for him when he comes back. Remember that it is possible for them to exist only if his dollar is worth a dollar!

By protecting his dollar, we help to protect his future. That's why we must realize NOW the dangers that lie in careless, unnecessary buying. Never buy two where one will do. Buy only what we need. We must support rationing and price control and encourage others to support them, and we must avoid ALL dealings with black markets.

These are the rules. If we break them, we can be certain that we will start our country—his country—on the spiral of inflation. Prices shoot sky-high. Wages try to catch up, and never succeed. You may pay a dollar for 30 cents worth of goods, and this means your dollar—your soldier's dollar—is worth only 30 cents.

There's no limit to inflation, and there's no stopping it once it starts. So, let's make sure OUR boys will come back to a protected dollar—a dollar that will buy a full dollar's worth of goods. Let's keep up the fight against inflation, every day, in every way we can, so that our men overseas can look forward to pleasant, satisfying living... the Canadian way of life.

Make this Pledge Today!

I pledge myself to do my part in fighting inflation:

By observing rationing and avoiding black markets in any shape or form.

By respecting price controls and other anti-inflation measures, and refraining from careless and unnecessary buying. I will not buy two where one will do, nor will I buy a "new" where an "old" will do.

By buying Victory Bonds and War Savings Stamps, supporting taxation, and abiding by all such measures which will lower the cost of living and help keep prices at a normal level.

Published by THE BREWING INDUSTRY (ONTARIO) to reveal the dangers of inflation.

INVEST IN THE BEST

Buy VICTORY BONDS

The fervent prayer of children—the cherished hope of all.

By helping to shorten the war by a day, an hour—or even a minute, you better the chances of thousands of Canadians coming through alive.

That's why there must be no let-up, no relaxation here on the home front. That's why we must purchase Bonds, for Victory Bonds help buy the stuff of which Victory will be made.

Victory Bonds will help to shorten the war. Victory Bonds will help to hasten the return of fathers, husbands, sons, brothers, sweethearts and friends. Powerful things Victory Bonds!—to have and to hold.

Cut Flowers

It is a proven fact that cut flowers placed in copper containers will remain fresh from one to three days longer than when other containers are used. Chemistry explains it thus: Some of the copper dissolves in the water and retards or checks completely the growth of bacteria which cause flowers to wilt.

Fortunately, many flowers, singly or in combination, are at their best when supplemented by the glowing warmth of copper. Zinnias, for instance, are lovely; or try lemon lilies and cornflowers in a gleaming copper bowl.

Then there's a whole marigold tribe, along with their calendula cousins. Nasturtiums, too, are effective in copper, as well as chrysanthemums and many roses. A bit of experimenting will reveal others, both wild and cultivated, which seem to belong with copper.

WALTER A. POPE

The death occurred at his home, 32 Connaught avenue south, on Wednesday morning, after a lengthy illness of Walter A. Pope, well known to Legion members in the Grimsby district.

He was born in England 49 years ago and has been a resident of Hamilton for 27 years. He was a valued employee of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. and for 22 years was a departmental manager.

He served overseas in the First Great War from 1914-18 with the 18th Batt. and was the winner of the Military Medal. He was a member of the 18th Bn. Veterans' Association.

Surviving are his wife, the former Catherine House of Grimsby and one son, William; two brothers and two sisters in England.

Remains are resting at the J. B. Mariatt Funeral Home, 615 Main street east, Hamilton, where services will be held on Friday afternoon at 2.30. Interment in Queen's Lawn cemetery, Grimsby.

KENNETH E. WHYTE

MRS. KENNETH E. WHYTE

Grimsby and district residents were greatly shocked on Monday to learn of the double death at their home in Toronto, on Sunday and Monday of Kenneth E. Whyte and his wife Alma Kathleen Whyte.

Mrs. Whyte had been in ill health for some considerable time but her demise was not expected by her large number of friends and relatives. She passed away at the family residence on Sunday evening.

Mr. Whyte, who has been in poor health for a long period of time was greatly shocked by the death of his wife and suffering a seizure on Monday afternoon passed away.

Mrs. Whyte was the only daughter of C. W. F. Carpenter and the late Mrs. Carpenter and was born and educated in this district. Besides her father she leaves one brother, Lloyd of Baltimore, Md. One small son mourns the loss of a father and mother.

Kenneth Whyte was a veteran of the Royal Air Force in the last war. In charge of aircraft at London for a time, he later went to France and while serving there was terribly burned when his plane took fire in the air. His left leg, badly burned but apparently healed after a year in hospital, was amputated some time after his re-

Returns Home

Pte. Everett K. May, one of three fighting sons of Mr. and Mrs. Harold May, 4 Gibson avenue, arrived back in Toronto Wednesday noon.

He was taken to Hamilton Military hospital, and is expected home for a few days rest and holiday before returning for medical treatment. Pte. May enlisted on Nov. 7, 1943 and went overseas in May of 1944, and almost immediately was sent to Italy, where he suffered bomb fragment wounds, compound fracture of left leg, wounds of thigh and lacerations to face and neck. He was only 19 years of age when he enlisted. A brother Gnr. Francis G. May, who suffered from terrific bomb concussion, returned home three weeks ago, after more than three years' service. Another brother, Gnr. Gordon May is on the western front, probably on the edge of Berlin. He has close to five years' service in the army.

Taking up civil aviation after his discharge from active service, he was in charge of Hamilton airport for some time. Flying a Moth plane, bearing the name of the Hamilton Aero Club, and with Harry Campbell, of Grimsby, as passenger, Ken Whyte, in September, 1928, won second place in Canada's first distance air race—from Windsor to Los Angeles.

As a recognition for his services to the Hamilton Aero Club and as a memento to his popularity with the executive while serving as chief instructor at the club, he was presented with a fountain pen and pencil set by the club executive in June, 1930, just before he left for Regina, where he had been appointed instructor of civil aviation for all Western Canada. He was transferred to Ontario several years ago in the same position.

He was a son of George C. and the late Mrs. Whyte for many years residents of Grimsby. Surviving are three brothers, Paul of Toronto, Barclay of British Columbia and Hugh K. of Grimsby. The two remains were brought to Grimsby on Wednesday morning and funeral services were held in St. Andrew's Anglican church on Wednesday afternoon, Rev. A. E. Brooks officiating. Interment was in St. Andrew's churchyard.

Casket bearers for Mr. Whyte were, Wm. Acres, Beamsville; George and Malcolm Nelles, Bruce and George Geddes and Nelles Rutherford.

This One Did Stop "Dad" Farrell

He did a lot of guessing and figuring and despite the fact that he is the manager of the biggest concern in Canada handling fruit containers, he fell down. This picture folks is of that much discussed building, the Carpenter Basket factory. Can you not discern the basket wagon and rack partially loaded with baskets. These buildings stood on Main street, south from the top of Palmer's hill to about where the home of Wm. Hands now stands. It burned down the morning of April 5th, 1895. In this old building the first canning factory in Canada was started, but more about that later. Here also were manufactured about the first veneer baskets, constructed to a standard size, for the packing and shipping of fruits. Mrs. Alex Scott (Grace Phillips) tells us that late in the evening of April 4th she and her mother, the late Mrs. Charles Phillips were on their way home (Paton street) from choir practice and as they topped the hill they both spoke of smelling wood smoke. Mrs. Olive Berry (Olive Grout), states that on that evening she was playing cards at the home of Dr. Theron Woolverton, Mountain street, and just at 12 o'clock she stepped out side to go home and across the vacant lots and creek they saw the flames shooting many feet into the air, then the fire alarm was sounded. Firemen fought the blaze all night and many pounds of coffee were provided the neighbourhood women to make hot coffee for the firemen. The purchase of that coffee became a hot argument point in Village council and for years after it was used by the late Ken Grout to heckle would-be office holders at nomination meetings. Ken's pet question and answer was "Who ordered the coffee?"—"Why Forbes, ordered the coffee?" So there you are, folks.

WINNIE HITTING FOR FRANK

(By Claude Kewley, in Globe and Mail)

To sportsmen the world over—but more particularly in Canada and the United States—the death of Franklin Delano Roosevelt is a blow below the belt. It hurts—plenty! But if F.D.R. had his way—and he will have—we'll answer the gong and come up fighting to start the next round.

For F.D.R. typified the fighting spirit of sports, the spirit that draws millions onto the playing field or playing stadia, the spirit that sent millions of gallant Americans across the Atlantic and the Pacific. His one regret was that he wasn't young enough to get into the second round after his fine show in the first back in 1914-18.

Every ball fan can picture it—and will. In the early innings we're licked. We know it—but for a couple of optimists on the bench, we'd admit it and quit. Our pitching is bad. Our fielding worse. Our hitting wouldn't break a pane of glass. Why go on? What's the matter with Frank and Winnie anyway? Don't they know we haven't a chance? Why keep on yapping about "getting in there and hitting." We're licked, aren't we?

No, not yet. Not while there's a guy ready to supply the tools to finish the job. Not while there's a guy yelling "We'll fight 'em on the beaches and in the hills."

And then it happened. It always does to a team that doesn't know it's licked.

There's a buzz on the sidelines. We cheer and take heart. First thing we know the Yanks are in North Africa. Then we're advancing in Italy. Glory be, we're across the Channel. Dieppe is avenged!

The sacks are loaded. On to victory!

Frank is coming up. The Yank are coming in droves. The Berlin crowd senses it. They're on the run. They run. Yep, that's big Frank coming up. His gang knows he'll do it. Yeh, and there's Winnie, right behind him, swinging that big war club nonchalantly, confidently. We can't lose.

Frank's smile is as broad as from first to third. Winnie is grinning. No, not smoking that big cigar. No time for that now. The final heave must begin. A hit will win. It's the last lap on the road to Berlin. Then big Frank is suddenly stricken, just as Lou Gehrig was in his prime. But don't worry, folks, Winnie is coming up. He'll finish what he promised Frank he'd do. Every sportsman from here to Hong Kong knows he will. Once we wanted to do it for Winnie. Now we'll do it for Frank. On to Berlin. On to Tokyo. On to victory.

SPORTY SPORTLETS:—A visitor to town on Saturday was no less a personage than Morris Walker of Beamsville, better known to the hockey fans of a few decades ago as Punk. And believe you me Bo, he was a hockey player. They did not come any better on the ice paths, for his time and day. He was considered the best hurler of sticks that ever performed in the Fruit Belt and that was saying a lot. There are a lot of colorful stories to be told about Punk, particularly with regard to that found $200, Beamsville-Grimsby game that was played in Brantford. But Blossom Time is no time to talk hockey, but when the wintry blasts come hurtling down from the frozen Northern wastes next fall I will regale you with some of them. . . . There are some of those kids in the Teen-Age league, battling for the Cusson Bell trophy, that are sure trundling nice games, well over the 200 mark. Some of the adult bowlers could pick up a few pointers from the kids.

. . . That Mrs. Norman (Hilda) Johnson is certainly a money player. When the stakes are down she really goes to town. For the third time, on Saturday, she walked off with Little Whizzer's War Savings Stamps, with a 239 score. Uncle Freddy Sims fired a 390 to take the men's end of the money. . . .

First of the play-off games are over. On Monday night all four sets were played in two straight games. Black Cats clawed out an easy victory over the Butchers and Bill Fisher is silenced for the season, maybe. Hep Cats had easy mush with the Legion and the Boulevard boys chased Buffalo Bill Allan and his Pony Express outfit back into the cactus bushes. West End took the Barbers. . . . Congratulations to Doris "The Red Smoke" McBride on her birthday. Another milestone in life passed, but female like, she won't say which one. . . . There was blood on the moon at The Bowlaway on Tuesday night. Also a lot of broken hopes. That Swash-buckling crew of Pirates were scuttled in two straight games by the Monarchs, at that they were only beaten 37 points on the total. . . . Old Bill Schwab failed to wiggle that left leg of his enough and the Peach Kings lost out 2-1 to St. Joseph's. . . . Pin Twisters bowled a whale of a game, taking the Sheet Metal two straight. No wonder. Twisters had seven out of 10 games well over 200. That kind of trundling will just about win them the championship. . . . And the poor old Gas House, Champions one year, bums the next. Hammy Fox and his Generals opened up the pet-cock and the gas all drained out. They went three games but at no time did the Rahn led Gassers look too formidable. . . . Now for the next series which will be played on Monday and Tuesday night. Poor Little Whizzer. The curtain is down and his Pirates hate slow music and detest flowers. . . . Team captains get in your team averages. Do not include playoff games.

SO FAR above the earth only a twisting, twining, vapor trail marks his furious pathway through the skies, man a Canadian fighter pilot whirls his Spitfire in combat, high above the droning bombers.

In combat he is alone. But our hearts are with him as they are with every fighting son of Canada—slogging infantryman, sweating artilleryman and every sailor on every fighting ship.

Our hearts are with them. But that is not enough. Our money must be there, too, equipping them, caring for them in sickness and in health—the tangible token that, in more than spirit, they do not fight alone.

In every Victory Loan Canadians have shown that their hearts are in the right place. There were more than three million buyers of the 7th Victory Loan. In asking you to purchase the 8th Victory Loan Canada gives you another opportunity for your unstinted help and offers you a sound financial investment as well. You loan your money at 3% interest, paid half-yearly, until the due date. Victory Bonds are backed by all the wealth and natural resources of the Dominion. They can be readily converted back into dollars in an emergency. And they may well be the mainstay of your post-war planning.

by hard work. I hope all citizens of Grimsby and North Grimsby Township will endeavour to get out the largest amount of paper, rags, bottles, (any kind of clear glass, even if broken). Iron of all kinds (except sheet tin or tin cans). Old mattresses of wool. No straw mattresses wanted.

Now folks, listen. If the business men are willing to give their precious gas and tires to help collect, you must co-operate by making your donations up in such a way that it can be handled. Tie your paper in bundles of not over 50 lbs. Put your rags in bags or boxes. Your glass and bottles must be in boxes or bags.

No doubt you are tired of reading all this, but rest assured I am just as tired of writing it, and no doubt the editor of this paper is tired of printing it. Here's hoping this will be the last time, till the boys are home again.

Make it a bumper crop of salvage. Paper, rags, iron, glass, bottles—any color, broken glass—clear only.

government, which ever one is in power, should include protectionary measure in the post-war construction plans. They should figure on building some kind of protection weirs or walls all along the lake from Burlington canal to the Niagara river.

To back up his argument the following motion was submitted and passed:—Mitchell-Nelles—"That a delegation should be sent to Ottawa to press for action in respect to getting some protection to property on the lake front, as this is a serious matter and should be included in the post-war plans."—Carried.

From property protection by erosion to property protection by tax relief for the property owner was only a small jump for Mitchell. He launched out at great length on the great good that would accrue to taxpayers through the Drew Educational subsidy. "Not only will the kids get a better education than has ever been given before, but the property owner is not going to be burdened down with taxation in order to provide it," said Mr. Mitchell.

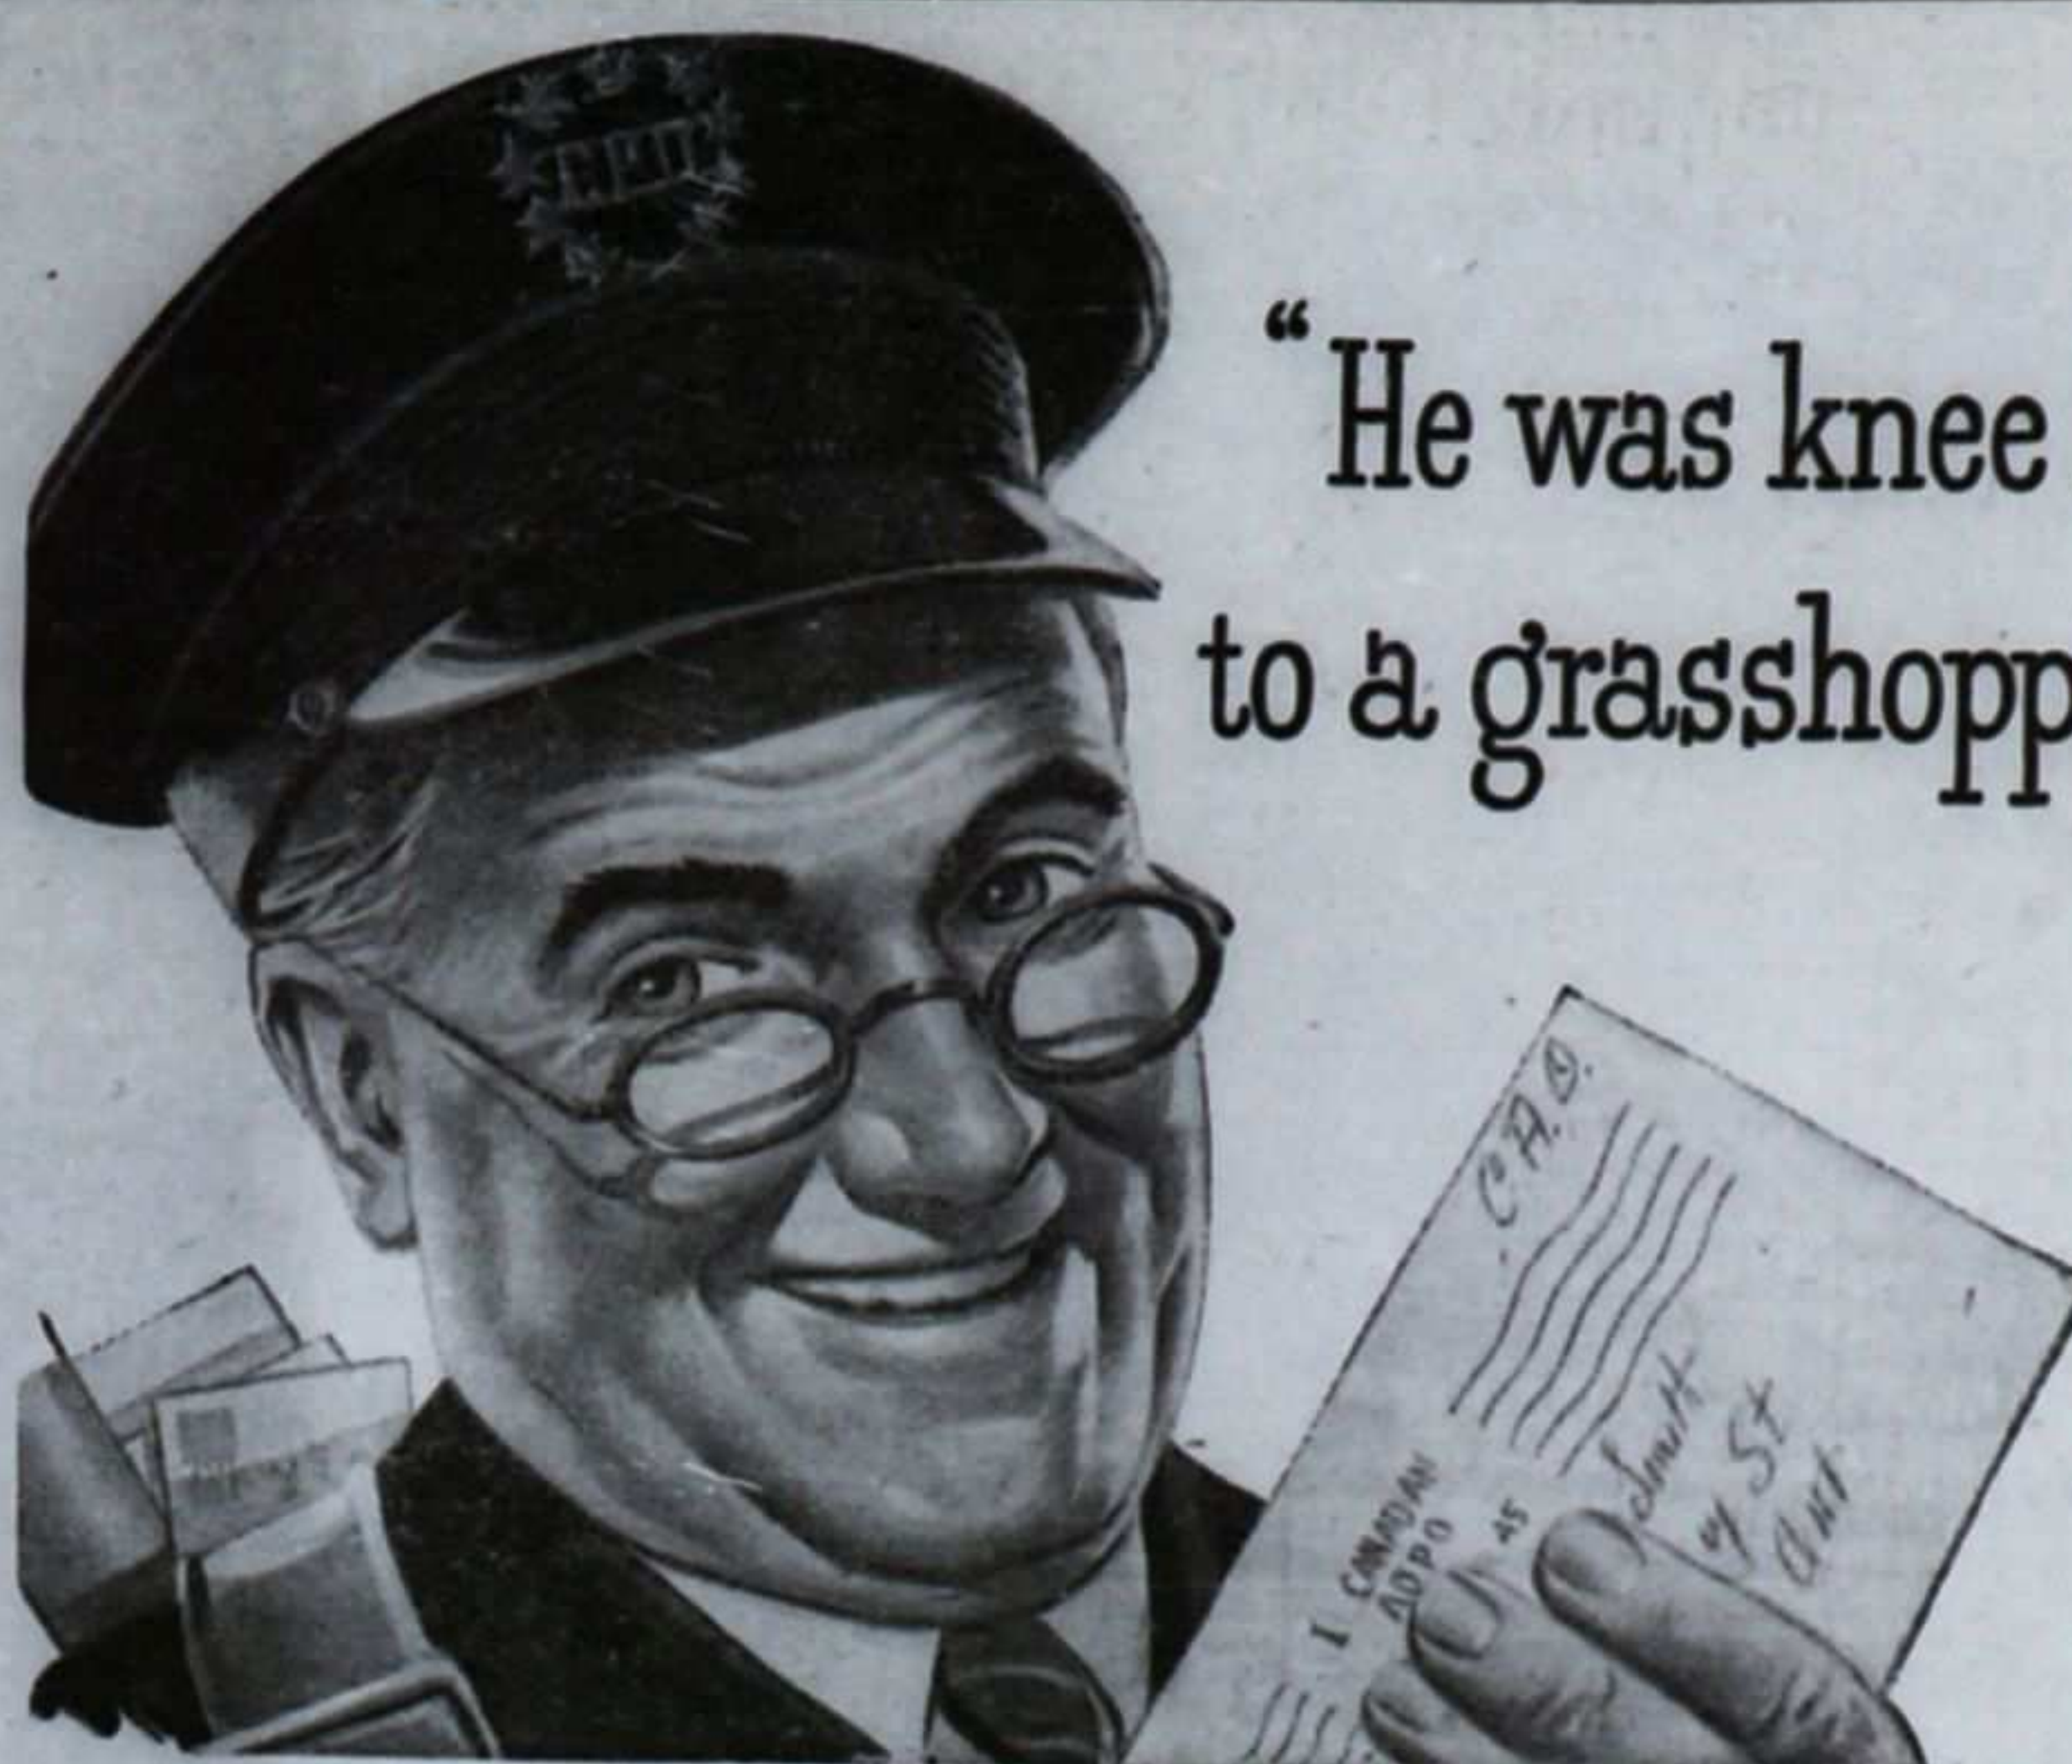

Backing up that argument he presented a motion seconded by Nelles, as follows:—"That the thanks of this council be extended to Premier George Drew and his government, for increasing the school grants which have been a great benefit in lifting the burden of taxation on all real estate in this province, and a copy be sent to Mr. Drew."—Carried.

A grant of $150 was granted Grimsby Beach residents, inside the Beach, for road purposes.

"It does my heart good to deliver letters like this. It's from that youngster who lived at one hundred and ten. He's in the thick of it, his mother says."

"Funny—but I can't help thinking of him as I knew him first... a chubby little chap in short pants. But he'll have learned plenty about being a man by now—though I'll bet he's as chipper as ever and spunky as they make 'em. Everything we love and hope for is in his hands... his and his pals!"

"I never thought they'd have to fight so long."

When I can't sleep at night I think about the awful cost... the terrible things they go through and the debt to them we can never repay.

"That's why I've never failed to buy Victory Bonds—don't see how anyone can. They must fight... we must provide the means of fighting. It's that simple!"

"This time I'll buy an extra bond... especially for that youngster from one hundred and ten. And if enough others like me will only think straight, this 8th Victory Loan will go over bigger than ever!"

Joint Fire Committee accounts for $288 were ordered paid. Mrs. Gertrude Tufford was granted permission to remove a building from Mariow Avenue, Grimsby Beach, to her farm on No. 8 Highway, to be used as a packing house.

Public School Inspector W. A. Marshall addressed council at some length on the proposed plans for a school area in North Grimsby on the mountain. The area would be comprised of Schools Nos. 4, 13, Union 3, (Grassie), Union 8 (Grimsby Centre) Union 6 (Upper Thirty). The area would be governed by a five man elected board of trustees, one from each section. Meetings of the ratepayers will be held in each section during the next two weeks. Council was agreeable to the plan if the ratepayers are.

Manager Geo. Fair of Grimsby Beach again brought up the question of a garbage dump for the township. Council have been working on this matter for some time but as they have been unable to secure different properties that would be suitable for this purpose are more or less up a tree. They will continue their investigations.

this year below the mountain and very little above the mountain, is the contributing factor for the roads coming through the winter in such fine condition. We did expect that there would be some damage caused by the bulldozers that were used for snowploughing, but this is not the case. The bulldozers did not do one dollar's damage to the roads anywhere.

When asked about bridges, he replied "all the bridges are in good shape. Of course we are building two new ones this year, anyway, but all the other bridges are in condition to carry their traffic until our big post-war road and bridge program is started. All told the County Road system is as near perfect as it could be under wartime conditions".

HYDRO RURAL WARTIME EXTENTIONS

With labour and metals drained by war, an unavoidable limit is placed on the number of new rural Hydro services that can be installed in 1945. Nevertheless, your Hydro is extending essential rural services to the absolute limit of labour and materials available.

About 8000 applications, made and approved during 1944, still await service, and many have since been added. These will be connected as soon as possible. It will take all the man-power, materials and effort that Hydro can command to bring service to these applicants in 1945. Those requesting service along existing power lines may, in some cases, be connected before prior applicants who require lengthy extensions. We regret that many approved applications may not be completed before 1946.

In 1944 your Hydro constructed about 400 miles of new rural lines, and added 9776 new customers.

With some 1200 Hydro employees in the armed services or on loan to the government for technical work, along with the shortage of many materials critical to war needs, your Hydro has done and is doing everything possible to extend electricity to essential services. If your turn seems slow in coming, please consider the wartime conditions under which your Commission labours, and be assured that it is doing everything possible to serve you with the utmost speed.

container. Usually the container is fastened to a stout string tied about the waist, berry-picking style.

The pollen thus gathered is quickly processed by drying under proper conditions and then taken by more distributors in slacks and "painted" upon blossoms in orchards which otherwise are non-fertile. Directions for gathering, processing, and distributing the pollen are supplied in bulletins issued by the Washington State College at Pullman. The anthers are paid for and the pollen sold by the volume ounce.

The process of pollination has been developed here by Leo and Lucile Antles who, after 17 years of painstaking work, have their own Fruit Tree Pollen Supply Company from which they distribute pollen as far east as Virginia and New York.

In their workshop the pollen is cured in a thermostatically controlled drying room with attention given to light intensity and humidity. As the pollen cures, the pollen sacs open and liberate the fine gold dust of the pollen which is then screened for use. The pollen is supplied to the applicator in a small bottle and applied with a fairly stiff artist's paint brush. The stigma is gently but firmly touched twice just before the bloom has unfurled.

Although the process sounds interminable, thousands of acres of trees are painted each season. Local people who have worked for the Antles for years have become very deft. Each worker paints from 10 to 20 trees in the short time that the trees are workable. This work has the advantage of coming in the otherwise slack season for orchard employment.

Hand pollination saves both labor and expense in one of the big apple-growing processes, that of thinning apples in their small green stage. Pollen is gathered from self-fertile trees which otherwise would set to heavily and therefore carry a heavy thinning cost. When the pollen is applied to the non-fertile trees and the apples are properly spaced, very little thinning is necessary afterward.

Another advantage is that pollination by hand insures a good crop in spite of weather conditions that might slow up the work of bee distributors. It is estimated that hand pollination is responsible for 1,500,000 bushels of additional apples a season.

A big development is the perfection of a trade process which stabilizes the viability of the pollen and makes it go farther. This dry stabilizer makes it possible to apply the pollen by dusters or even airplanes. This last method will be tried out this spring. Spray was applied from airplanes last season.

The present problem is to preserve pollen. This is done under proper storage conditions of controlled temperature. As it is today, the whole business of pollination must be done quickly during the blossom period.

The hand pollination method was introduced into Mexico two years ago when Mr. Antles worked with the operators of the 400-acre apple ranch of Torres Brothers in north central Mexico. Although the trees were vigorous, because of the blooming of non-fertile varieties the orchard was non-productive until pollination by "human bees" was introduced.

ate of S. Mark's, Orangeville, and S. George's, Guelph and rector of Grand Valley and Chippewa from which later place he came to Grimsby in February 1905, succeeding the late Rev. C. R. Lee.

Last year he resigned as rector of St. Andrew's and was succeeded by the present rector, Rev. A. E. Brooks, he remaining as Rector Emeritus. He labored in the field of St. Andrew's most successfully and a great many advances and improvements were made during the 40 years of his rectorship. Gifted with a voice and manner which lent grace to the liturgy, with all the feelings of an artist for solemnity and order in public worship, an interest in outdoor games, a love of horses and dogs and an openness of mind which discovers truth in experiences differing from his own, he added a mellow beauty to whatever his hand touched.

In 1943 he was awarded the Lions Club, Good Citizenship Gold Medal. He was Honorary member of West Lincoln branch 127, Canadian Legion, and was a Padre to the boys in more ways than one.

His great helpmate in life and in his work for many years, Mrs. Ballard, predeceased him in 1935. Besides his daughter his only immediate surviving relative is a brother George in Evelyn, B.C. Requiem Celebration will be held in St. Andrew's church on Friday morning, April 20th, at 10.30. Funeral service will be in the afternoon, in the church, at two o'clock. Interment will be at Burford. 32 Divorce Cases On Court Docket

The largest docket in the history of the Supreme Court assize in Lincoln County, made up largely of divorces, opened Monday before Justice Barlow. A total of 32 cases, 20 of which are divorces, were entered for trial and this is virtually double the number usually scheduled for trial. It is expected that the court will require more than a week.

The cases, other than the divorces, are all civil nature arising out of motor car accidents, property disputes and money disputes.

Canada's peacetime expansion will call for the efforts not only of all our present workers, plus the more than 2,400 employees in uniform, but many more besides. Every Bell worker, at home or overseas, knows there is permanent work—important work waiting for him to do after the war.

THERE'S lots of work to be done. We are eager to get at it . . .

The war interrupted the normal expansion of Bell Telephone service. As telephone materials grew scarce, more and more people had to wait their turn. Today, the waiting list is nearly 70,000.

Just as soon as men and materials are again available, these deferred applications will be filled. Work will be resumed on conversion to dial telephones, on rural expansion, on extension and improvement of present services, on rebuilding our normal back-log of reserve equipment.
